Dear Provider:

When you write a DME prescription for a patient who needs urological or incontinent supplies, you want the assurance of knowing the items the patient receives are the best choice for that person. That's why we're pleased to let you know that J&B Medical Supply has been chosen as MDwise Hoosier Alliance's preferred vendor for urological and incontinent supplies and diapers.

J&B is a national, family-owned DME distributor headquartered in Wixom, Mich. They are a contracted supplier of incontinence and urological products for the State of Indiana. Brand names and product manufacturers available for your patients include: Attends[®], Coloplast/Mentor, Covidien, First Quality and TENA[®].

If you're not sure which product is the right choice for your patient's particular needs, J&B has a medical director and a team of registered nurses on staff to guide you through your decision. In addition, J&B will ship samples of most incontinent and urological supplies directly to your patients to ensure that the product you've prescribed will be able to perform to your and their satisfaction. Respectful of patients' privacy, J&B packages all orders discreetly and ships them directly to patients via FedEx. For patients who are in need of DME supplies on a continuing basis, J&B offers automatic shipping.

If you would like to learn more about J&B Medical Supply and the urological and incontinent supplies they offer, contact them at 800-737-0045 or visit their Web site, www.jandbmedical.com. You can also call our Medical Management representatives at 888-961-3100.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mark Rollins
